2 of 2 review helpful I was disappointed by kbysma I was very disappointed that my Great Grandfather's George E Wood mansion on 2801 S Prairie Avenue was not mentioned The only reason I bought the book was because I thought his mansion would be in it since it is on Prairie Avenue Today it is a historical landmark It is a finely preserved Queen Anne style mansion built in 1885 The book has other mansions that were on Prairie Avenue evolved into Chicago's s most exclusive residential street during the last three decades of the 19th century The city rsquo s wealthiest citizens mdash Marshall Field Philip Armour and George Pullman mdash were soon joined by dozens of Chicago rsquo s business social and civic leaders establishing a neighborhood that the Chicago Herald proclaimed lquo a cluster of millionaires not to be matched for numbers anywhere else in the country rdquo S About the Author William H Tyre is executive director of the Glessner House Museum H H Richardson rsquo s masterpiece of residential design that features an extraordinary collection of original English and American arts and crafts furnishings
