0 of 0 review helpful Small town friendliness with big city nearness By turbogramma So much new information about the small town I lived in and loved 0 of 0 review helpful Excellent read for those from Northwestern Pennsylvania By Maskil An excellent read for those interested in their hometown history The book is well laid out with pictures narratives and Lawrence Park was planned developed and built by the General Electric Company in 1910 when the company decided to build their plant near Erie Pennsylvania However Lawrence Park was not to be a company town but rather a planned community in the English garden concept The tree lined streets flowering boulevards and delightful parks are a testimony to those visionaries Around 1900 the elegant Grove House Hotel was built on the banks of beautiful Lake Erie About the Author Marjorie D McLean a retired Iroquois School District teacher and counselor has done extensive historical research for Lawrence Park using the archives of the Lawrence Park Historical Society The members of the society have worked diligently
