0 of 0 review helpful History for those who love dinnerware made in Sebring Ohio By Cathy As I have some beautiful dishes made about 1900 In Sebring Ohio and live in Ohio I found the story of the Sebring family and their town delightful I appreciate these lovely dishes even more now for their history and for the people who made them and would like to visit Sebring where there is a museum about their dinnerware 1 of 1 The Sebring family came from the

Netherlands and moved to Pennsylvania George E and Elizabeth Larkins Sebring eventually settled in East Liverpool where they ran a grocery business and lived with their ten children The Sebrings then decided to find property and build a pottery town as they had been involved in potteries in East Liverpool and East Palestine They settled on 200 acres of farmland near the Mahoning River with the railroad running through the property About the Author Sebring Ohio offers insight into the development of this community and recognizes the efforts of the pottery workers and laborers This visual tour illustrates how a swampy area in Mahoning County grew into the nation sbquo rsquo s largest man
