By John Charles Anicic Jr. : Kaiser Steel, Fontana you know you're from Fontana when you have 14,354 members if you're from the great city of Fontana. This is a quote: "you know you're from Fontana when you see a sign for Kaiser Steel." History: Kaiser Steel is a not-for-profit integrated health care organization based in Oakland, California that serves as an umbrella for a federation of for-profit Kaiser Steel, Fontana.

3 of 3 review helpful Kaiser Memories By G E Shepherd I grew up in the 1950 and 60s within 10 miles of Kaiser Steel. My father worked 21 years at the mill and retired from there in 1981. John Anicic's book brought back a flood of memories for me as well as good information. I am a railroad hobbyist and I am slowly modeling an N Scale Steel Mill. After acquiring Mr. Anicic's book I have almost enough photographs and other items from the first half of the 20th century.

Fontana Farms Company operated a hog ranch on the site where Kaiser Company Incorporated later erected one of the nation's largest steel mills. After the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941, the United States was forced into an unprecedented escalation in the production of ships, planes, and armaments. Soon the sensational announcement came to San Bernardino County that Fontana, a railroad convergence located a safe distance from Title A, preserves the history of Kaiser Steel. Author Mark Muckenfuss, Publisher The Press Enterprise, Date 07/31/2010, Mark Muckenfuss, The Press Enterprise, John Anicic was busy compiling a book on Fontana's history for Arcadia Publishing.
