0 of 0 review helpful Great for a collection By Nona I do a lot of genealogy and this is nice to add to my collection of books to visually see what some of the records show When you work with records you imagine what it was like this gives an insight what some may have had to live through 0 of 1 review helpful Nice history and photos By broodge I used to work here a As it ravaged the world the influenza epidemic of 1918 devastated Boston s congested North End and left hundreds of orphans in its wake Touched by this crisis a Roman Catholic priest and a group of Italian Americans founded the first home for Italian children in Massachusetts Franciscan Sisters devoted 24 hours a day to providing the children with a safe loving and spiritual environment In addition the home provided educational support for its residents Over t About the Author Christopher F Small has been the executive director of the Italian Home for Children since 1984 A Massachusetts native he has devoted his life to children and today still maintains contact with many of those who previously lived at the home
