0 of 0 review helpful travel back in time By Chery Ann Repetti Okay so I m biased because some of the proceeds from sales benefits the historical society I m a member of BUT even without that I would still have bought this book The main reason is that I love looking at old photos of places it s the closest any of us will come to time travel and it s especially interesting in the case of places like Centreville an Centreville and Chantilly are located 25 miles west of Washington DC and both share rich Civil War histories Centreville overcame occupation by two armies during the Civil War Four Chimney House the home of a prominent Centreville businessman first became the headquarters of Union general Irvin McDowell then the headquarters of Confederate general Joseph E Johnston Johnston also used the Mount Gilead home which is still standing as his personal residence In C About the Author Mary Stachyra Lopez is an award winning journalist who has lived and worked in the Sully District for the last several years During that time she has learned about the history of these communities and how they have changed over the past decade
